LEVEL GREEN

Through the mercies of a kind and an indulgent Creator I am spending these pleasant days and nights with friends in Rockcastle's "p."

This is my first visit for seven long weary months. The old town looks very natural; but few small changes notable, and no large ones, upon the whole the old town holds to her ancient appearance and customs. Yes, O, yes, many new politicians have lately developed and come very prominently to the front in the last three months, but we are glad to note that the Congressional muddle as to Rockcastle has been amicably settled, tho' Gilbert deserved, and in a contest would have received first instructions, but we are of opinion that he'll receive the nomination at the convention in the face of all opposition:—"So mote it be."

Our farmers are the busiest set on earth just now, plowing corn, killing weeds and hoeing taters and garden truck generally. The small wheat crop in the Foller promises a good yield. Farmers should sow more wheat and raise bread at home; too much bread and meat shipped abroad—for prosperous grangers, such will always operate to the detriment of the farming class—yes, we'll learn by and by.

A. C. Sowder, wife and daughter, May, will "go West" in a few days visiting friends in Indian Territory, Kansas and returning by way of St. Louis to see the big show. Editor Albright has also gone to the fair this week and the devil (Will Davis) and I, with other help will run the SIGNAL.

So I'll ask my young friend, Joe Matt Craig, to tell us the cause of the war now going on between Russia and Japan, how far these powers are apart, their relative population, where is Port Arthur, Manchuria and Corea. How far does Russia have to transport her troops and what is her means of transportation, what kinds of governments are those? Now sir, when you answer these we'll propound more—for it is much easier to ask than to answer questions.

We think that none but practical questions should be asked, catches always avoided as they serve more to confuse than instruct.

Mr. Vernon is in good health, S. C. Davis, M. D., sells lots of drugs and is making millions of money. He still holds his position and rank as the best conversationalist in the town. The lawyers and drs. seem to be taking a rest while all others are very busily engaged. The L. & N. trains both freight and passenger go through the old town regularly as in days of yore, the big Spout spring still gushes forth from the old hill where it has performed this duty to man, beast, bird and reptile for the last million or more of years and will, no doubt, continue to do until this planet freezes up, burns up or is blown out. That enterprising harness maker "Sam" Davis, has added machinery to his works—partly his own invention—by which he is now enabled to turnish harness, saddles, saddies, etc. to the Russian army.

No preaching here last Lord's day. This reminds me of home. We certainly do need a lot of good preachers, either home-made or imported for service in Rockcastle. Why can not more of our young men prepare for the ministry? The medical and legal fraternities are over run, but a big lack is found in the Theological. Why is this when it is the most honorable profession on earth? Now if sufficient inducements were held forth to the young men of Kentucky, we'd soon see our pulpits filled with workmen worthy the name, but until congregations or churches quit starving their pastors the ministry will hold but a secondary place among the professions. All others are better paid than our religious teachers, yet no others deserve so much as they do. The preacher, a common or public school teacher, are today the two greatest moral factors on earth and they walk hand in hand for morality, law, order and christianity, looking for the larger part of their wages after a long credit. Come, let us work for a change.

A STRONG HEART

is assured by perfect digestion. Indigestion swells the stomach and puffs it up against the heart. This causes shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart and general weakness. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures indigestion, relieves the stomach, takes the strain off the heart and restores it to a full performance of its function naturally. Kodol increases the strength by enabling the stomach and digestive organs to digest, assimilate and appropriate to the blood and tissues all of the food nutriment. Tones the stomach and digestive organs. Sold by Chas. C. Davis, the druggist.

Great excitement was caused in Hickman by a crowd of five hundred citizens visiting the different places where intoxicants were sold in violation of the local option law and giving the proprietors a few hours to leave town. Two carloads of beer was confiscated at one place and shipped back to Evansville, Indiana. It was with difficulty that the crowd was restrained from doing violence to several insolent violators.

WORST OF ALL EXPERIENCE

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala.: "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I am completely recovered." For liver, kidney, stomach and bowel troubles, Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c, it's guaranteed by all druggists.

CRAB ORCHARD

Miss Jean Buchanan visited Miss Bessie Burch last week.

Miss Jean Dick has returned from a visit to Lancaster.

Mrs. W. H. Furr, of Flat Woods, spent a night with Mrs. Patten during the strawberry season.

The strawberry supper, given on the 9th, by the ladies of the Baptist church, was quite a success.

Mrs. John Macarley, of Rowland with her daughter, Beulah, and bright little babe, Arthurs, visited Mr. and Mrs. Patten last week.

Miss Ida Holdam, who has had a long sick spell, we are glad to say is convalescent. She, and Miss Catherine Bronaugh are spending a few days at W. T. Holdam's.

George Thompson, of Pleasant Hill, Mo., who went home on the 22nd of May, on account of his daughter's sickness, has returned to Crab Orchard. His daughter died in New Mexico on the 5th Inst. and was brought back to her old home in Missouri to be buried.

Sanctified meeting is in full blast, hope much good will result, have not attended often, as our strawberry crop is on hand, and we, poor imperfect mortals, are so full of the old Adam, that we can't live on spiritual food alone, so have to prepare something for the physical body.

Buck Varnon asks if I did not state the arithmetical question wrong, that I asked a few weeks since, I don't remember how I stated it, I took it from an old newspaper, have lost the paper. I will ask another question: Which is the heaviest, dry or moist air; will a body weigh the same in water that it will on land.

Elias Baker, of Gum Sulphur, took in the Camp-meeting Sunday, and took dinner with Mrs. Patten. Mr. Baker is having a hard time with some of the lowlived scoundrels in his neighborhood. They went to his pasture, took his mare out and cut off her tail and abused her in other ways, threw eggs on him as he came out the church door all because he is a good citizen and stands up for law and order.

Sorry to say our Sunday schools seem to be on the decline. Do any teachers meet with my experience? Have your class come in Sunday morning and begin to make excuses, for not knowing their lessons? One says he forgot his book, another couldn't find his, another hadn't time to learn his lesson, and who is to blame? It must be the mother, or some one who has charge of the child. If parents would take more interest in helping the child prepare their lessons than they do in dressing them up to go out, how much more satisfactory it would be to teachers, and much more good might be accomplished.

Clem Hutton, a young Bath county farmer, became insane over the Mormon religion and almost drowned his wife, claiming he was baptizing her in that faith.

BROODHEAD

Miss Helen Thurmond has returned to Lancaster.

Mrs. Sallie Magee and daughter, Miss May spent Sunday with relatives at Crab Orchard and took in the camp meeting.

Lester Hilton is holding down the wires at Crab Orchard this week and Charley Hurt has accepted the agency at Lilly.

The recent wet weather has thrown the farmers considerably behind with their work. Good farm hands are getting 75 cts. per day and still there is room for more. Miss Ethel Parker, of Virginia, is again with her sister, Mrs. Dr. Gravelly. Miss Ethel has a host of friends here who gladly welcome her return.

Mrs. J. R. Wallin and children, of LaFollette, Tenn., are here with friends and relatives for a short time. Mr. Jim Crank, of Hodge, Ky., was with friends and relatives at this place last week.

The timber is about all gone and the people will be compelled to turn their attention to farming and if this will be done with good judgment and a little energy our county will soon come to the front.

STARTLING EVIDENCE.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefitted. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all lung and throat troubles, consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c. and $1.00.

Frank Mills Andrews, of Dayton, O., was selected as architect of the new Capitol building by the State Capitol Commission. The plans of the structure are expected to be in the hands of bidding contractors by September 20, and the first excavating will begin about December.

Mrs. J. L. Whitehead and her mother, Mrs. Green Clay Smith, went to Somerset Tuesday on business.

Mrs. J. D. Adkins is visiting her old home at Campbellsville, Ky.

Miss Rosalie Stout, the adopted daughter of the late Judge Stout, of this place, died at her aunt's home at Burnside last week. This completes the taking off of the whole family since February.

Mr. Frank Perkins, our jailer, fell last night and received severe injuries.

A party consisting of Drs. W. H. Parker, Wiley L. Jones, Capt. J. K. Watkins, David Kinner, Nick Daniel, A. J. Sullivan and John Lovitt, with wagons loaded with beds, clothing, stoves, meal, flour, bacon, molasses, coffee and perhaps some other eatables and drinkables, all left here Monday for Devils creek ostensibly to spend the week in fishing. We look for "Port Arthur" to fall before they return.

Chas. C. Davis, our popular druggist, asks the readers of this paper to test the value of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Those persons who have used it and who have been cured by it, do not hesitate to recommend it to their friends. Kodol digests what you eat, cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Increases strength by enabling the stomach and digestive organs to contribute to the blood all of the nutriment contained in the food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is pleasant and palatable.

In order to conform to the new Kentucky law prohibiting the co-education of whites and blacks, the trustees of Berea College are arranging for the transfer of their colored students to other institutions. The younger pupils will be sent to the colored public schools, and those of higher grades to Fisk University, Nashville, or some similar institution.

CONWAY

Helm seems to be in the lead in this neck of the woods.

Mrs. J. J. Wood is visiting relatives in Barbourville this week.

A few from here took in the circus at Mt. Vernon last Friday.

U. S. Berry sold to W. H. Jones a nice bunch of sheep for $2 per head.

Harvey Sigman and J. J. Wood lost two hogs by colliding with a train here this week.

The Sunday-school meets here at 10 o'clock a. m., instead of 9 o'clock p. m., as it has in the past.

The excursion trains to Cincinnati is not much benefit to us, no difference how bad we want to go they won't stop for us.

Mrs. D. C. Pullins sold an old time pitcher and some old brass candle-sticks to a traveling man for a good price. She also has in her possession a bottle of whisky 26 years old, and a jar of honey 13 years old. Wouldn't it be good mixed.—[The wonder is that Dave hasn't mixed it long ago.—Devil.

There is some talk of building a house for religious worship here this summer if a sufficient amount of money can be raised. Why not fix up the schoolhouse and use it? It is very much out of repair and a small outlay of money would fix it up in good shape and it would answer the purpose of church and schoolhouse for the present time.

When To Accept.—Discussing the all-important subject of proposals, the author of "How to Choose a Husband" remarks: "The first thing in choosing the husband is to realize what sort of man you ought not to choose. My advice to all girls is, first, to refuse at all hazards the man who proposes at a dance, because there is a glamour about a ballroom, and men often say at a dance what they wish unsaid the following morning. At picnics, what with washing up, carrying baskets and opening bottles, girls cannot only judge of a man's character, but it will be quite safe to accept a proposal made at one, especially if it is made before luncheon."

DRIVEN TO DESPERATION.

Living at an out of the way place, remote from civilization, a family is often driven to desperation in case of accident, resulting in burns, cuts, wounds, ulcers, etc. Lay in a supply of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the best on earth. 25c. at all druggists.

Mary had a little lamb,
Perhaps you know she had.
So I won't say no more because Mayhap 't would make you mad.

Mt. Vernon, Ky.

STRAYED.—A white boar hog, weight about 75 pounds, has been at my house since February 1st. Owner can have same by paying all damages and cost of publishing this article. may 27/31 W. A. COFFEY.

FOR A HUNDRED YEARS.

For a hundred years or more Witch Hazel has been recognized as a superior remedy, but it remained for E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, to discover how to combine the virtues of Witch Hazel with other antiseptics, in the form of a salve. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best salve in the world for sores, cuts, burns, bruises and piles. The High standing of this salve has given rise to counterfeits, and the public is advised to look for the name, "DeWitt," on the package, and accept no other. Sold by Chas. C. Davis, the druggist.

A pretentious person recently said to Col. Green, of Woodbury, N. J.: "How would a lecture by me on Mount Vesuvius suit the inhabitants of your town?" "Very well, sir; very well, sir; very well, indeed," answered the Col.; "a lecture by you on Mount Vesuvius would suit them a great deal better than a lecture by you in this town."

HON. G. G. GILBERT.

Mr. Gilbert, is a candidate for Congress in the Eighth district, to succeed Hon. G. G. Gilbert, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR JAILER.

We are authorized to announce
as a candidate for Jailer of Rockcastle County, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The best of reports come in concerning Hon. Harvey Helm's race for Congress. In fact matters have assumed such a splendid shape that it looks like a certainty that he will be nominated on the first ballot at Shelbyville on the 28th. The democracy of this district could certainly not place the honor where it more properly belongs than to nominate a Lincoln's splendid young democrat. Make Mr. Helm the standard bearer and all will be well. —Inter- or Journal.

CONGRESSMAN FITZGERALD of New York, thinks the Democrats ought to promise the Philippines immediate independence. Instead of the "ultimate independence" contemplated by some. Gen. Miles says that an independent Philippine republic under our protectorate could be established in "two hundred days." Isn't this ultimate enough?

In the Merchant Marine Commission is frank and honest, it will report to Congress that a ship subsidy is an expensive luxury. James J. Hill testifies that the two merchant ships which he built as an experiment, the largest in the world, cost him one-third more than they would have cost in England. "I've laid enough," he exclaims.

The largest summer school in the world will open at Knoxville, Tenn., on June 29, for three months. It will consist principally of teachers from twenty-four States, and there will be no skilled lecturers on the various phases of educational work. The attendance last year was more than two thousand.

In winding up a column editorial on the congressional race the Richmond Register says: "There should be no difficulty in a choice between the two. Helms is the man; and we are certain the Democrats of Madison will say so at their precinct conventions June 25."

The national treasury seems to have shrunk. Instead of a surplus of $14,000,000, as Secretary Shaw promised, there will be a deficit of about three times that amount. For a season of "unexemplified prosperity," this is so depressing.

There are abundant indications that the people of the United States have come to the conclusion that a party that has had absolute control for eight years is sure to be corrupt and ought to be superseded.

Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, refuses to preside at the St. Louis convention. He knows full well that in that conspicuous seat the presidential lightning would have a good chance at him.

One day last week five bank officials in as many States absconded with large sums. Their friends generally announced that they were "unbalanced," merely because their books were.

THE declarations of Messrs. Bryan and Hearst that they both cheerfully expect to support the candidate who may be nominated at St. Louis defines their status creditably and agreeably.

WHAT'S the matter with Justice Harlan for President? He insists that Congress follows the Constitution, and that to deny the right of trial by jury to a Filipino is a violation of all right?

The war in the Far East is progressing slowly. It seems that the Japs have beaten the Russians on all points. Port Arthur will fall into Japanese hands within next thirty or sixty days; then the powers will step in and stop the war. The basis of settlement follows. This is the opinion of the writer who is assisting in getting out this issue of SIGNAL, while the editor is away on a World's Fair jaunt.

SCRAPS — (BY JET)

Some men are never homesick except when they are at home.

The man who gets but frugal fare at home the whole year long. Growls loudest in the lunch cafe. When anything goes wrong.

Don't kill the birds. Even the crows should be allowed to live until the disappointed candidates are ready for them in November. In Indianapolis News.

The Old Conscience. — It may not be the richest gift. That comes with greatest love, but still it is the price mark that the world keeps thinking of.

"I got outside on about three o'clock of 40-year-old rye on Saturday night," said Felix Feb. "and when I woke up Sunday morning it was Tuesday afternoon."

Advancing. — A little Alabama darkey put a playmate in a sack and sold him for forty cents. And all the Alabama papers believe that the negro cannot be civilized.

Crucial Employment. — Employment lengthens life, and congenial employment makes it happier. To be busy happy in making the utmost of one's capabilities is fullness of living.

Takes It All With Him. — "Well you can't deny that Mr. Rockefeller is a philosopher anyway."

"Why so?"

"He's taking the world as he finds it."

Ink and Powder. — Archibald: "Well, the pen is mightier than the sword."

Andrew: "Maybe it is. Say, I wrote a letter once that made a man chase me all over town with a gun."

A Proper Supposition. — "What was that animal that was half horse and half man?"

"The Centaur."

"Oh, yes, I suppose if he had been half donkey and half man he'd been a regular five-cent dude."

Dyall: "And so you don't believe your father thinks I'm such a bad sort of a chap?"

Eiman: "Oh, no, I'm sure he thinks favorably, as I do, of your intentions, with the single eye of a best for his girl."

Nothing is really free in this world. Everything has its value and you have to pay for it. Don't deceive yourself about even such a thing as happiness. To obtain true happiness you have to pay kindness, cheerfulness and good-will to others.

Makes me fighting mad to see 'em as list as they can be. Go a-growlin' round as though life is all a cloud of woe; Lookin' nifty all the while. When there ought to be a smile. Come! let's try to figger out. What you've got to kick about.

Many a young girl makes the mistake of thinking that because she would die for a man she truly loves him. In this restless, throbbing age it is necessary for her to ask herself in all seriousness, "Would I take in washing for him?"

"Of course," said the husband who made a specialty of manufacturing excuses, "the truth is bound to leak out some time."

"Yes," rejoined the other half of the matrimonial combine, "and I am inclined to believe that it all leaked out of you long ago." EX.

The Early Bird: — "The early bird, 'tis said, will surely catch."

The luscious morsel that too early squirms;

I choose a loaf a while myself, and eat.

Canary seed; I never liked the worms.

"To bed and rise at a becoming hour."

Gives wisdom, health and wealth, in books we find; To stay up late and sleep till nine, day time, Gives something quite as good—that's peace of mind."

"Straight Goods." Thirty-four anacondas have been born at the snake house of the New York Zoo. The keeper who reported this is known to be a teetotaler, so that the rest of the New Yorkers are reasonably certain they are real snakes. —Indianapolis Journal.

"We had a cow once that swallowed our alarm clock, she immediately struck and refused to give any milk," said old farmer Courtessell. "Shah," said Simon Cucumber, "we had a cow ourselves once who swallowed an almanac and gave creamed dates." —Kennebec (Me) Journal.

Thought They Were Tapers. — A servant girl was once given some macaroni by her mistress to prepare for the table. Noticing the girl's surprise, the lady asked:

"Didn't you cook macaroni a year or last place?"

"Cook it? We used them things a night the girls work."

How it Happened. — "Fortune, you know, knocks at every man's door once."

"That explains it."

"Explains what?"

"How we came to miss her. Why in thunder doesn't she ring the bell? We never pay any attention to knocks."

"How high does a fly stand?" asked the observing gent, gazing intently at a number of the summer posts as they moved nimbly over the table.

And then he staggered the other members of the party, who essayed a guess, by answering his own query thusly: "Over six feet."

"Twenty minutes for refreshments!" bawled the conductor, as he passed down the platform.

The little girl with the blackberry preserves on her chin hailed him.

"You needn't stop the train on our account. We're going to eat in the car; that's what mamma says."

Material Faith. — "I always knew you did Jarve an injustice," said Mrs. B. "Some of the folks that was to town said he told 'em he was on the water wagon now."

"That's good news."

"Of course it is. He hauls water or the colonists to water the 'bly' people."

The Unlucky Apple. — "Twas the apple that in Eden caused our Fathers' primal fall. And the Trojan war, remember— 'Twas an apple caused it all. So for weeks I've hesitated. You can guess the reason why. For I want to tell my Naumie 'She's the apple of my eye."

—[L. M. (D. L.) Oh, My.

An Improvement. — The owner of the new apartment house was exhibiting it to his brother-in-law, who was an architect.

"I had it built according to my own," he said, "and it's built for keeps. An earthquake wouldn't have any effect on it."

"That's a pity," said the brother-in-law. "An earthquake might improve it."

What He Heard. — An Irishman was called on to give evidence in a shooting affray.

"Did you see the shot fired?"

"No," replied the witness, "but I heard it."

Magistrate (sharply). — That is not satisfactory. Go down.

As the Irishman turned his back he commenced to laugh, but was rebuked by the magistrate, who added that it was contempt of court.

Pat: "Did you see me laugh?" Magistrate: "No; I heard you."

Pat: "That's not satisfactory."

And the court laughed.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

The reports from county conventions in Texas indicate that the Parker forces have captured a large majority of the delegates. Although many counties elected unaffiliated delegates it is practically certain that a Parker delegation will be sent to the National Convention at St. Louis.

Judge L. E. Mann, of Morehead, has withdrawn from the race for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Ninth district.

HIS FEAST ON HOG ISLAND

Philadelphian's Greed for Oranges Gives Chance for a Joke at His Expense.

Hog Island is a little British spot in the tropics and lies just across the harbor from Nassau, and its inhabitants have lately been immensely enjoying a tame little joke on a visiting citizen of Philadelphia. Hog Island is known all over the world for its natural magnificence and the waters of which are like one large mosaic, containing all the colors of the rainbow, and to the imagination of the eye, a hundred others.

Here there is a small army of boatmen, who row sightseers across the bay to the island. On landing the visitor enters a large orange grove, of which fruit he is allowed to partake to his heart's content, or rather stomach's content, all of which costs the small sum of 25 cents.

Now, the American citizen has a liking for oranges, and when he found himself in the heart of the district where they grow and with such a tempting offer before him he just simply couldn't withhold himself. So he started in with a vengeance to clean the grove of its luscious fruit. When he had finished eating the third orange, however, his conscience pricked him. Seeking out the owner of the grove—for that generous English gentleman does duty as cashier—he told him what he had done and offered to pay him in accordance.

"That's all right," was the reply, "you don't owe me any more. You see, you are on Hog Island."

HABITS OF BIRD BABIES.

Some Remarkable Instances of Inherited Instinct Among Young of the Feathered Tribe.

"It is not all bird babies, however, who have such warlike dispositions, and the young of those parents which are themselves of a timid nature, or unable personally to protect their offspring from marauders, frequently adopt very different tactics," writes Jerrard Grant Allen and Leonard Batters in an article on Bird Babies in Pearson's. "The plumage is, in many cases, so beautifully adapted to the surrounding vegetation, earth or stones, as to be practically indiscernible so long as the chick remains still. Indeed, the avian is able to afford examples of protective resemblance at least as perfect as that demonstrated by beast or fish. Hereditary instinct it is which teaches the baby that this protective coloration is its best safeguard, and it is not slow to put its advantages into practice.

"An example of this is the case of the stone curlew. The tiny chick, just emerged from its shell, will, at the approach of some real or supposed danger, flatten its little, sand-colored body against the sandy ground, stretch out its neck to the fullest extent, and lie there motionless and almost indistinguishable from the stones around it. Until all signs of danger have passed. In fact, he chances to catch sight of the beady, yellow eye, the man will be a keen observer indeed who detects anything different in that little heap from others on the surrounding waste."

WHEN THERMOMETERS SELL

People Like to Watch the Mercury When It Marks the Extremes of Temperature.

"Thermometers? Yes, we are selling lots of them," said the young woman behind the optical counter in the big department store, during a recent cold snap, according to the Philadelphia Record. "Our sales always jump in weather like this, and in extremely hot weather in summer. During a long spell of even weather, when a winter is not extraordinarily cold or a summer not extraordinarily hot, there is little demand for thermometers. But just let a very cold spell set in in winter, or a very hot spell in summer, and it makes all the difference in the world in the sales of our department, although thermometers are simply regarded as a side issue. Suburbanites are especially eager buyers, particularly at this time of year, when the temperature in early morning is several degrees lower in the outlying districts than it is in the city proper. It's a great source of satisfaction to the suburbanite to come in town, see a thermometer registering seven degrees above zero, and say with great complacency: 'Why, the thermometer on my porch was one degree below when I left home.'"

The Projectiles We Use.

We have now armor piercing projectiles, deck piercing projectiles, semi-armored projectiles, common forged and cast steel projectiles, cast iron projectiles, shrapnel, and so on, in endless variety. As the work the gun, whether ashore or afloat, will have to do can be pretty clearly predicted, it would appear as though one, or at most two, kinds of projectiles would be enough. These two would naturally have the one a high penetrative power, and the other a large capacity for internal charge, giving great destructive power when the shell is burst. No one who has not examined carefully the effect of bursting shell in a closed space can have an idea of its destructiveness. A small six-pound shell, of about 2 1/2 inches diameter, containing three or four ounces of powder, burst in an ordinary room and breaking into 20 or 30 fragments, would probably destroy everything in the room.—Scientific American.

Koreans Are Conservative.

Eight years ago an attempt was made to introduce European dress in Seoul, but the change could not be made because of conservative opposition, especially on the part of the women. At present the only Koreans who wear European garments are the soldiers and policemen.

ALL THE STATES AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Many Beautiful Pavilions and Pretentious Buildings Show Forth the Enterprise of American Commonwealths.

A beautiful city has grown up among the trees on the World's Fair grounds at St. Louis. It has nothing to do with the immense exhibit palaces, but is a thing apart. The houses in this new city are of various styles of architecture. Some are palatial in size and appearance, while others look merely cozy and inviting. Never before have so many notable and historic buildings been constructed in one group. The new city might be called the City of the States, for the houses included in it are the state buildings at the fair.

The city is not compact, but somewhat straggling, as befits the picturesque view. Yet there is nothing suggestive of a Strington-on-the-Pike about this city, for the grounds surrounding each of the houses are beautiful with gardens typical of the state represented.

All the states are to be represented at the World's Fair. This means a great deal, a shining triumph for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and furnishes another illustration of the fact that this Exposition's completeness is the marvel of the age.

Fifty-one states, territories and possessions of the United States have taken the steps necessary to participate in the World's Fair on an important scale. But two states were still outside the fold at the last report, and in each of these was a well defined movement in favor of being represented at the fair with buildings and exhibits. New Hampshire, the old home state, and Delaware are the states referred to. In New Hampshire a fund for participation is being raised privately by patriotic citizens, so that in the event of legislative inaction this commonwealth may be represented.

The states and territories are expending over $7,000,000 in their efforts to show off to best advantage at the Exposition. This is a million and a half more than was expended at the Chicago exposition by the states. In addition to this, large cities in many states will have municipal exhibits, the funds for which are not included in these figures. The municipal exhibit idea is entirely novel. From a number of the states there will be prominent county exhibits provided by special appropriation of county funds.

This City of the States presents a picture of surpassing beauty. Nature has done much to aid in the creation of the picture. Never before has any exposition been able to grant such advantageous sites for state buildings. The buildings are situated on a plateau about seventy-five feet higher than the level ground to the north upon which stand the main exhibit palaces. There are hills and ravines here and there, enabling the landscapers to lay out a most delightful pattern of roads and terraces and lawns.

The smallest of the state buildings is that of Arizona, which stands near the southeastern entrance to the grounds. One of the largest is that of Missouri, from the dome of which it is said that perhaps the very finest view of the Exposition may be enjoyed. This building is a palace in the Italian renaissance architecture, built at a cost of $100,000. Near by is the reproduction of the Capitol at New Orleans, in which the Louisiana Purchase transfer ceremonies took place. Louisiana's state building, Ohio has a clubhouse of highly ornate design, in the architecture of the French renaissance. Illinois is prominent with a most pretentious structure, with wide verandas and a commanding cupola.

A dome of each of the state buildings, with any detail, would more than fill a newspaper page. It is only possible here to hint at some of the interesting structures. California, for instance, has reproduced in exact size the famous old La Bodega Mission. Connecticut presents a replica of the Connecticut residence at Hartford, home of the poetess Lydia Huntley Sigourney in her time. This building is said to be the finest specimen of purely colonial architecture now standing. The New Kentucky Home, from the Blue Grass State, is a handsome clubhouse that would make some of the mansions along Fifth avenue, New York city, look insignificant. Beauvoir, the quaint old house which Jefferson Davis owned and occupied for many years, is reproduced by Mississippi. Its wide verandas or galleries give it a most inviting appearance. Washington's headquarters at Morris-town, N. J., are reproduced by New Jersey. Virginia contributes Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson. The state of Wisconsin, five stories high, built of wood from Wisconsin forests, with gigantic discolored timbers rising from the ground and meeting in an apex ninety feet in the air, above which is built an observatory, from which a splendid view of the Exposition may be had. An elevator will carry visitors to the observatory.

New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Arkansas, Colorado, West Virginia, Indiana, Wisconsin, Texas and many other states are represented by buildings which cannot fail to arouse admiration. The Texas building is in the shape of a five pointed star, an appropriate idea for the Lone Star State. Iowa has a magnificent mansion, with classic porticoes and a central tower containing an observatory chamber. Kansas, Indian Territory and Oklahoma each uphold the growing reputation of the southwest for enterprise and fertility of resources.

JOHN D. CARROLL

A CANDIDATE FOR APPELLATE JUDGE OF THIS DISTRICT.

Hon. John D. Carroll, of New Castle, one of the best known lawyers in the State, has announced as a candidate for Appellate Judge in this District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Carroll's friends—especially in the legal profession—have for a long time desired to see him on the bench, the highest court in the State. He has held several offices of trust and honor, and in all of them acquitted himself with credit. When quite a young man he served two terms in the Legislature, was a member of the Constitutional Convention and one of the three commissioners appointed by the Governor to revise the statute laws of the State to conform to the changes made by constitution, and was for several years chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee.

He is the editor of Carroll's Kentucky Codes of Practice, and Carroll's Kentucky Statutes, law books that are in general use and that may be found in the office of every lawyer in the State. A man of high integrity, great industry, with an extensive and accurate knowledge of the law, and in the prime of life, his large circle of friends believe he would make a splendid judge.—Tribune Democrat.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a running or roaring in your ears, and when this is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be restored, forever, even if you have been deaf for years. This is not a new discovery, but a fact which has been known for centuries, and which is now being brought to the attention of the public.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt mislabeled as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a disconsolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days, and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being.
